Customer Privacy Policy Notice

Commitment to Your Private Information: Off the Bay Wealth, has a policy of protecting the confidentiality and security of information we collect about our clients. We do not, and will not, share non-public personal information ("Information") about you with outside third parties without your consent, except for the specific purposes described below. This notice has been provided to you to describe the Information we may gather and the situations under which we may need to share it.

Why We Collect and How We Use Information. We limit the collection and use of Information within our firm to only those individuals associated or employed with us that must have Information to provide financial services to you. Such services include maintaining your accounts, processing transaction requests, and providing the advisory services described in our Form ADV.

How We Gather Information. We get most Information directly from you when you provide us with information from any of the following sources:

- Applications or forms (for example: name, address, social security number, birth date, assets, income, financial history)
- Transactional activity in your account (for example: trading history and account balances)
- Information services and consumer reporting sources (for example: to verify your identity or to assess your credit history)
- Other sources with your consent (for example: your insurance professional, attorney, accountant, or our affiliated firm, Off the Bay Tax & Accounting PLLC)

How We Protect Information. Our employees and affiliated persons are required to protect the confidentiality of Information and to comply with our stated policies. They may access Information only when there is an acceptable reason to do so, such as to service your account or provide you with financial services. Employees who violate our Privacy Policy are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination from employment with us. We also maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect Information, which comply with applicable SEC, state, and federal laws.

Sharing Information with Our Affiliated Tax and Accounting Firm. Off the Bay Wealth, LLC is affiliated through common ownership with Off the Bay Tax & Accounting, PLLC, a separate accounting and tax preparation firm. When Client separately engages Off the Bay Tax & Accounting, PLLC for tax preparation or other services, and Client has authorized such sharing, Off the Bay Wealth may disclose Information to Off the Bay Tax & Accounting, PLLC that is reasonably necessary to provide the services requested by Client.

Information shared may include identifying information, prior tax returns and tax documents, income and expense information, investment and retirement account information, realized gains and losses, business financial information, and other financial information relevant to the services Client has requested.

Client is not required to use Off the Bay Tax & Accounting, PLLC and may select another tax or accounting professional. Client may revoke authorization for Off the Bay Wealth to share Information with Off the Bay Tax & Accounting, PLLC by providing written notice to Off the Bay Wealth. If Client does not authorize such sharing, Client will be responsible for providing information required for tax preparation directly to the tax preparer.

Off the Bay Wealth may also receive Information from Off the Bay Tax & Accounting, PLLC where Client has authorized the disclosure and applicable law permits the disclosure.

Sharing Information with Other Companies Permitted Under Law. We do not disclose Information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted under law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing Information to unrelated third parties who need to know such Information in order to assist us with the provision of services to you. Unrelated third parties may include broker/dealers, mutual fund companies, insurance companies, and the custodian with which your assets are held. In such situations, we stress the confidential nature of Information being shared.

Former Customers. Even if we cease to provide you with financial products or services, our Privacy Policy will continue to apply to you and we will continue to treat your non-public information with strict confidentiality.
